

Dante's Calling Cards:

It's halloween every night with Punkin' Spice!

Role at Dante's:

Opening act—fan dancer

Go-To Dance Song:

"Purple People Eater" by Sheb Wooley

Living Name/Age:

Mary Anne Mortson, 26

Death/Cause:

October 31, 1962 from eating cyanide-laced taffy

Likes:

Caramel corn, big hair, teasing (both kinds)

Meet Our Gal:

Punkin' sure knows how to make a crowd sweat. She dances with fans to keep 'em all from melting! Watch as this coquettish lady peels off her costume piece by piece. Her personality isn't the only thing that's cheeky.

Backstory:

Since she was a kid, Punkin' loved werewolves, vampires and all things ooky-spooky. Eventually, she gave it up and married young. By 26, she was the mother of 3 unruly boys. Oh, the humanity!

After one fateful night of trick-or-treating, she took a bite of an unsuspecting piece of taffy. Minutes later, she was cold dead.

The Netherworld may have been a shock to Punkin', but she feels at home at Dante's. Be sure to give her a ring!

Don't bother. Just plays hard to get.
- BBB

